
SHAVON LINDLEY – WOMEN EVOLUTION

Q: You mentioned there were 6 critical skills, but I think I only caught 3?

A: There are 6 critical leadership skills that every successful female executive has in common regardless of industry, function, title or nationality. They are:

- *Owning Your Purpose - Deciding what you want and why
- *Owning Your Voice - Knowing when to speak up vs. when to listen
- *Owning Your Emotions - Managing sensitivity and reactivity
- *Owning Your Feedback - Seeking, receiving and giving criticism
- *Owning Your Conversations - Communicating directly and with integrity
- *Owning Your Evolution - Supporting others and creating a legacy

It is when they mastered one of these skills that they were able to go from one level to the next. These 6 skills are the foundation of every solution at Women Evolution.
